If anyone is asked about one of the best days of their life, the immediate reminiscence is that of one's college life. Same is the case with me. AISSMS IOIT provided me with some of my most fond memories, best of friends, new experiences and a learning curve that shaped my career. Extra curricular like- active involvement in the National Service Scheme, roles and responsibility in College fest, etc helped broaden horizons. NSS exposure was one of the major epiphanies for choosing civil services as a career. Hoping to envision these learning's further in my career and wishing my alma mater and my friends sitting there all the very best for their future endeavors. Finally, dream because your limit is what you define it to be!
