9	AISSMS IOIT	STUDYININDIA WEBSITE-PORTAL OUTREACH &amp; ORIENTATIONPROG RAM FORTHECOMPLIANC EOFFICERS OFHEIs Date: 22nd March 2024 Time: 10.00 am Venue: AICTE Auditorium, Vasant Kunj, New Delhi	Conclusion: The orientation program provided a comprehensive understanding of the Study in India initiative and the role of compliance officers in facilitating the admission process for international students. The collaborative efforts of various stakeholders, including government bodies, HEIs, and Indian missions abroad, were emphasized as crucial for the success of SII. The event concluded with remarks from Dr. Shalia Shah and Dr. B. Chandrasekar, outlining the way forward for SII. Recommendations: 1. AISSMS IOIT needs to interact with the institutes like Amity University, Lovely University, Punjab University who are already in process to admit students from foreign countries to understand their practices to convert the students approaching the institutes to admission successfully. 2. Introduction of English as primary language paper at entry level in curriculum of each engineering branch has to be proposed at institute level. 3. All the program heads has to provide inputs to the International Partnership Cell emphasizing strengths of their programs and uniqueness of their respective course content year wise. 4, Continuous training and capacity building for compliance officers to ensure efficient handling of international admissions. 5. Regular interaction and collaboration between HEIs, government bodies, and Indian missions to address challenges and streamline processes. 6. Promotion of institutional best practices for internationalization to foster diversity and excellence in Indian higher education. Future Outlook: The orientation program laid a strong foundation for the effective implementation and expansion of the Study in India initiative. Continued engagement and collaboration among stakeholders will be crucial in attracting the international students to AISSMS IOIT for higher education. Participation in events like Education Fair organized by Study In India Portal. Networking:
